2014-07-30T00:00:00+02:00 Bruno Bignami Nell'Italia del primo Novecento don Mazzolari decide di non ritirarsi all'ombra del campanile di Bozzolo, nella bassa padana, ma di partecipare con convinzione al travaglio storico del Paese: lo si vede soldato e cappellano militare nel primo conflitto, sempre nel vivo del dibattito culturale, da subito antifascista, resistente fino alla fine, sostenitore delle istanze della pace, costruttore di riconciliazione in diverse piazze italiane, saggista, promotore del dialogo tra differenti anime della società. La sua voce inconfondibile percorre tutto lo stivale raggiungendo le isole della Sicilia e della Sardegna e negli anni Cinquanta un fiume di persone giunge da ogni parte alla canonica di Bozzolo per ascoltare la parola dell'arciprete o accostarsi alla geografia di epistolari provenienti dai luoghi più sperduti. La biografia scritta da Bruno Bignami si propone di mettere in dialogo i diversi mondi che hanno segnato il ministero sacerdotale di don Primo: il servizio alla parrocchia, con gli eventi più importanti, e l'impegno «oltre la parrocchia» per una pastorale missionaria e una testimonianza coraggiosa ispirata al convincimento che «i destini del mondo si maturano in periferia». I borghi della bassa padana sono sicuramente periferie dell'Italia novecentesca, ma non sono diventate prigioni del pensiero e dell'anima perché ogni luogo può essere finestra sul mondo se è capace di rigenerare amore e passione per la vita umana.

2007-01-01 Nancy Flowers Living among other people, in their families and communities, children become aware from a very early age of questions related to justice, and they search for the meaning of the world. By fostering an understanding of human rights, shaping opinion and developing attitudes, human rights education strongly supports this natural interest and learning process. This is what human rights education is about and this is what 'Compasito manual on human rights education for children' is for. 'Compasito' is a starting point for educators, teachers and trainers who are ready to deal with human rights education with children of 7-13 years. The book covers the key concepts of human rights and children's rights, and provides substantial theoretical background to 13 key human rights issues, such as democracy, citizenship, gender equality, environment, media, poverty, and violence. The 42 practical activities serve to engage and motivate children to recognise human rights issues in their own environment. They help children to develop critical thinking, responsibility and a sense of justice, and help them learn how to take action to contribute to the betterment of their school or community. The manual also gives practical tips on how it can be used in various formal and non-formal educational settings.

One night, it's a carousel that adults cannot comprehend, but whose operator must be some sort of magician, the next, it's a land filled with butter men who melt in the sunshine Awarded the Hans Christian Anderson Award in 1970, Gianni Rodari is widely considered to be Italy's most important children's author of the 20th century.
