Liquid Life 2020-11-10 William R. LaFleur Why would a country strongly influenced by Buddhism's reverence for life allow legalized, widely used abortion? Equally puzzling to many Westerners is the Japanese practice of mizuko rites, in which the parents of aborted fetuses pray for the well-being of these rejected "lives." In this provocative investigation, William LaFleur examines abortion as a window on the culture and ethics of Japan. At the same time he contributes to the Western debate on abortion, exploring how the Japanese resolve their conflicting emotions privately and avoid the pro-life/pro-choice politics that sharply divide Americans on the issue.

The Origin of Wealth 2007 Eric D. Beinhocker Economics is changing radically. This paradigm shift, the biggest in the field for over a century, will have profound implications for business, government and society for decades to come. In this book, the author surveys the cutting-edge ideas of the leading economists, physicists, biologists and cognitive scientists who are fundamentally reshaping economics, and brings their work alive for a broad audience. These researchers argue that the economy is a 'complex adaptive system', more akin to the brain, the internet or an ecosystem than to the static picture of economic systems portrayed by traditional theory. They claim it is the evolutionary process of differentiation, selection and amplification, acting on designs for technologies, social institutions and businesses that drives growth in the economy over time. If Adam Smith provided the inspiration for economics in the twentieth century, it is Charles Darwin who is providing it in the twenty-first. If we can understand how evolution creates wealth, then we can better answer the question 'How can we create more wealth for the benefit of individuals, businesses and society?' The author shows how 'Complexity Economics' turns conventional wisdom on its head in areas such as business strategy, the design of organisations, the workings of stock markets and public policy. As sweeping in scope as its title, "The Origin of Wealth" is a landmark book that shatters orthodox economic theory, and will rewire our thinking about how we came to be here - and where we are going.

Japan's Foreign Policies 2010-10-18 A M Pooley This volume draws together material from The Japan Chronicle, The Japan Gazette and the China Treaty Port foreign papers, all of which are of great historical value. The Japan and China Treaty Port foreign papers frequently contain important articles translated from the vernacular press. These original articles were often written by leading politicians and statesmen - Count Mutsu, Count Hayashi, Tang-shao-Yi, Wu-ting-Fang and Liang-chi-Chao were all prolific contributors. Written with the prospect of World War II looming, the rapid changes in the Far East happened almost without the West realising. This volume makes available key documents and analyses Japanese foreign policy with a view to directing UK handling of a delicate diplomatic situation in the Far East.

1. "God promises to make something good out of the storm that brings devastation to your life."-Romans 8:28. 2. "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce, you will be judged. And with the measure you use it will be measured to you."-Matthew 7:1-2 3. "But the more they oppressed them, the more they multiplied and flourished."-Exodus 1:12 4. "The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit."-Proverbs 18:21. 5. "Pride leads to disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom."-Proverbs 11:1-2 6. "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her."--John 8:7 7. "Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb. Trust in the Lord, and do good.... Trust in him, and he will act." -Psalm 37:1-40 8. "Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold." -EPHESIANS 4:26-27 9. "Vengeance is mine." -Deuteronomy 32:35. Romans 12:19 10. "Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life." -James 1:12 ESV 11. "He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls." -Proverbs 25:28 12. "The Lord came with many thousands of His holy ones, to execute judgment upon all... These are grumblers, finding fault, following after their own lusts; they speak arrogantly..." -Jude 1:14-16 13. "Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless." -James 1:26 14. "Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed." -Luke 12:15 15. "He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is vanity." -Ecclesiastes 5:10 16. "No one can serve two masters... You cannot serve God and money" -Matthew 6:24 17. "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God" -Matthew 19:24 18. "Do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great." --Leviticus 19:15 19. "Do nothing from rivalry or conceit." -Philippians 2:3 20. "But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts... For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every evil practice." -James 3:14-16 ESV 21. "What about the seed that fell by the path? That is like the people who hear the teaching about God's kingdom but do not understand it. The Evil One comes and takes away what was planted in their hearts. And what about the seed that fell on rocky ground? That is like the people who hear the teaching and quickly and gladly accept it. But they do not let the teaching go deep into their lives. They keep it only a short time. As soon as trouble or persecution comes because of the teaching they accepted, they give up.... That is like the people who hear the teaching but let worries about this life and love for money stop it from growing. So it does not produce a crop in their lives." -Matthew 13:14-38 ERV 22. "For the Lord hears your grumblings which you grumble against Him." -Exodus 16:7-12 23. "Do not be haughty in mind, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own estimation." -Romans 12:16 24. "We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves." -Romans 15:1 25. "The wise fear the Lord and shun evil." -Proverbs 14: 16-22 26. "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." -Luke 14:11 27. "Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise." -Proverbs 13:20 28. "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear." --2 Timothy 1:7 29. "A fool gives full vent to his spirit, but a wise man quietly holds it back." -Proverbs 29:11 ESV 30. "The Lord works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel." -Psalm 103: 6 31. "Do not be wise in your own eyes." -Proverbs 3:7-8

Japan and China 2014-05 Erdener Kaynak Japan and China: The Meeting of Asia's Two Economic Giants analyzes the new and changing relationship between the two nations and the rest of the world that may shape a new economic landscape for Asia in the 21st century. Managers and employees of multinational firms, as well as students interested in international business, will learn about the cultural ties between the two countries and how traditions have shaped management methods and work ethics. Understanding the cultures and traditions of each country will help you improve business relations with Japanese or Chinese firms. It will also help you compete with these firms in the international business arena. Japan and China: The Meeting of Asia's Two Economic Giants is based on an extensive survey of current literature, personal observations, and case studies researched by the author. Containing first-hand information on the interworkings of old and new Japanese and Chinese business practices, this book unveils some of the myths behind Japanese-style management and Chinese business methods. In light of increased cooperation between the nations, Japan and China: The Meeting of Asia's Two Economic Giants discusses some of the barriers to business between the two countries and what effects these barriers can have individually on China, Japan, and other nations. In addition, the text contains suggestions for further improvement of business relations between China and Japan by examining: China's current drive to learn and adapt some of the West's modern management knowledge and technology and to re-examine ancient military strategies relating to business ways to improve working relations between Japanese managers and Chinese workers how to make Japanese-style Human Resource Management (HRM) understandable to other countries the effect that disappearing Japanese style management practices, such as lifetime employment and seniority-based promotion/pay systems, have on Japanese businesses societal differences that add difficulty to business relations between China and Japan Featuring unique, first-hand accounts and insights into Japanese and Chinese business practices, Japan and China: The Meeting of Asia's Two Economic Giants will keep you informed of the changing world of international business as it approaches the 21st century.

The Dawning of the End of Time 2012-02-01 I. Charles Williams What if Jesus were to come today, would you be ready? No man knows the day nor the hour that our Lord will come. Although this is true, the author lets us know that the signs that Jesus spoke of and the Apostles and Prophets said would precede His coming are all around us.
